Description

Casa Sofia brings together beachfront living, lagoon frontage, and off-grid comfort within the Sian Ka'an Biosphere Reserve, one of the most protected coastal areas south of Tulum. Set along the Tulum Boca Paila road near Kilometer 8.44, the residence sits on approximately 116,089.52 square feet (10,784.76 square meters) of land with 328 feet (99.97 meters) of combined beach and lagoon frontage.

The home offers 3,229 square feet (299.98 square meters) of interior living space, with five bedrooms and four-and-a-half bathrooms arranged between the main residence and a separate guest casita. Four king bedrooms are located in the main home, including two ensuite suites, while the casita provides a queen bedroom and private bathroom for added separation. A media room, shaded terraces, open-air dining areas, and multiple rooftop terraces give the property a flexible layout for hosting, working remotely, or extended stays by the coast.

The setting is the defining feature. From the seaside deck and upper terraces, Casa Sofia captures views toward the Caribbean Sea, the lagoon, and the surrounding jungle canopy. A private swimming pool, solar power system, and strong Starlink Wi-Fi signal support comfortable daily use in a natural beachfront environment where privacy and infrastructure are both important.

For buyers seeking a Tulum beachfront residence with substantial land, direct connection to both water and jungle, and proximity to the Hotel Zone, Casa Sofia offers an uncommon Sian Ka'an ownership opportunity. The property is well suited to those who value space, nature, privacy, and a more self-sufficient style of coastal living.
