THE DETAILS

The property

Satori Kanso is the flagship residence of The Satori Collection, a masterpiece of balance, proportion, and tranquility. This six-bedroom villa embraces the Japanese concept of Kanso, where simplicity and intentionality define beauty.

Located one mile from Tulum's beaches, the home spans over 500 m² of crafted spaces that flow naturally between interior and exterior. A triple-height living room with 28-foot ceilings welcomes abundant light through expansive windows overlooking the jungle canopy. The sculptural staircase anchors the space, leading to a circular dining room for eleven and a chef-ready kitchen with island seating for six.

Natural finishes of chukum, tropical wood, and microcement express an understated luxury. Each bedroom is a private suite with its own bath and walk-in closet. The primary suite opens directly to the central courtyard, where an al fresco shower connects residents to the surrounding nature.

At the villa's center lies a 28 m² pool, surrounded by open-air dining and lounge areas. Optional wellness features include a sauna and cold plunge for a complete restorative experience. The rooftop terrace adds a second pool, sun deck, and covered lounge, an ideal space for retreats, intimate weddings, or evenings under the stars.

Satori Kanso combines architectural precision, natural materials, and human-centered design. Built for longevity and livability, it's a property that unites sophistication with soulful calm.
